Kids: Do Art!

April 7th - 9th, 10:00 am - 12:00 pm

Our mission is to engage the community with the arts, and a large part of that is giving kids opportunities to try a variety of artforms. That's why we're so excited for this year's series of spring workshops for kids and teenagers!

Please take the time to read through the class descriptions and schedule and complete this form. The 1st, 2nd, and 3rd class preferences will be used to determine your child's schedule. Keep in mind that a submitted form with payment will secure a spot for your child at Kids: Do Art!

Kids: Do Art! Spring Break Camps Class Descriptions

Class Title	Instructor	Class Description
Ceramics: 3 day workshop (1-hour each day)	Trisha Dawn Coggins	Come have fun with clay. We will explore different handbuilding techniques to create your very own, one of a kind, decorative and functional bowl. Day 1: Create & Design, Day 2: Glaze & Fire, Day 3: Ceramic Gallery Walk
Creative Printmaking	Emily Dieleman	Use different natural and household items to create fun and interesting prints using paint, ink and other fun things!
Create Your Favorite Animal	Emily Dieleman	Use pencils, pens & ink to create your favorite animal from photographs supplied by the instructor.
Theatre Games & Improv!	Danyale Tamminga	Use your imagination, get on your feet and play! Theatre games are a fun way to explore the possibilities of drama - creating a character, story and dialogue with other creative minds.
Puppetry: Creation & History	Andy Koch	Spend two hours creating and performing with puppets. A brief history of puppetry will take us around the world, exploring this fascinating art form as we go. The workshop will culminate in performances in a professional puppet tent. Parents, Siblings and Friends are encouraged to attend the last 20 minutes of class to watch the shows.
Northwest Ballet Academy	John Bishop	Come and enjoy an introduction to the classical study of Ballet! Learn basic ballet technique, terminology, and choreography. Learn to tell a story without words - convey Joy & Love, Fear & Anger, all with movement.
Making Felted Pictures	Donna Hunter & JP McConnell	Using a pre-felt background, students will design a picture using wool fiber, yarns and pieces of fabric or felt. Soap, water and agitation will bind the fibers together.
Making Felted Headband Flowers	Donna Hunter & JP McConnell	Students will choose wool fiber colors and add design elements with yarn, bits of fabric or felt pieces. Felting with soap, water and agitation will result in a flower of 3 to 5 inches that can be worn on a head band, hair clip or hat.
Catch the Rhythm!	Natalie Friesen	This workshop will focus on rhythm in music, dance, and literature. We'll look at different ways we can move our body, explore household and a few other items, move to the beat of poetry, and even learn a traditional Indonesian hand and arm dance. Come Catch the Rhythm!
Beginning Rhythm & Hand Drumming	Nathan Matson	Using a variety of hand drums, shakers, tamborines and plastic buckets, the class experiences the wonderful world of rhythm. Various West African, Afro-Cuban, and Middle Eastern rhythm will be explored. This hands-on workshop offers lots of opportunities to jam as a group. It's easier than you think! No musical experience necessary!
Basics of Comedy	Kitty King	We will start at the beginnings of comedy, learning how to use your face and body to make the theater laugh. We will also learn some drama games for improving concentration, getting warmed up, and having fun! This will be a very active class so wear comfortable clothes!
Beginning Basketweaving	Jane Coombs	Learn the beginnings of how to weave a basket and create a colorful and useful mat made with strips of pre-painted corrugated cardboard.
Weaving Colorful Baskets	Jane Coombs	We will learn how to weave a colorful and useful basket created with strips of pre-painted corrugated cardboard.
Backpack Charms & Zipper Pulls	Tracy Vandermay	Learn to use basic wire working tools while creating colorful items to keep or give as gifts. An assortment of supplies will be provided to fuel your creativity. Suggested projects will be presented but personal creativity is the goal.
Friendship Bracelets	Tracy Vandermay	You will learn a few different ways to make a simple yet beautiful piece of jewelry. Choose your favorite beads and be ready to create!

*Unless otherwise noted, all classes are 1-hour sessions
